

It's November – Gratitude Month!

Right!! The beach is too cold. No snow in the mountains yet. It's dark in the morning when I get up. It's dark when I get off work at night. My kids hate school, so guess who they take it out on – you guessed it! Only 43 shopping days left 'til Christmas and I haven't bought a single gift yet, (the 99 Cents Store just doesn't seem to have the Christmas gifts in yet). Thanksgiving Day with the in-laws – 'nuf said! My sponsor doesn't understand me. So, what's to be grateful for?

Well....

You may also exit the 91 Freeway on Glassell/Kraemer. If you go north, (toward the mountains) this is Kraemer and you don't want to go that way. Turn South ,(away from the mountains) this is Glassell, and you want to go that way. It's on the east side of the road.
